THE FIRST TRAIN.

An Excursion over Red River on the 1, A. & F. R. R.

We are pleased to announce this week that the Red River bridge of the new railroad is at last completed, and that the track laying on the other side of the river is progressing rapidly. The road bed has been graded and made ready for the reception of track about twelve miles beyond the river, and a train will be running that distance in a few weeks at the furthest.

The first train that has crossed the bridge carried an excursion party over Wednesday afternoon. The party consisted of Judge Smith, Mr. H. M. Doak, Mayor Howell, Mr. Henry Wilken, of Uniontown, Ky., Dr. Carney, Major Thomas, Mr. W. O. Brandon, Mr. Lige Beech, Mr. Malligan, Mr. Charney Smith, Mr. Walter Richardson, the Carroll-Kyle's representative and several railroad attaches who's names the reporter did not learn. The train started at half past four o'clock from the upper pier and proceeded with a rapid and easy motion towards the bridge. As the cars used were common flats, some of the passengers were expecting a rough ride, but in this particular they were most agreeably disappointed, for the motion was as smooth as a Fulmar sleeper on the best ballasted steel rail track. The trestle immediately over the river is sixty feet high; a rather dizzy height for an open air ride, and when some of the new timbers cracked a little under the weight of the passing train at least one of the excursionists got moon-eyed, and it is probable that every member of the party, except the railroad men, felt a little nervous trepidation. After crossing the bridge the train returned to the sawmill, where the party spent some time in inspecting the machinery and work that is going on, and then returned to the starting point at the upper pier.

Work on the road is being pushed rapidly forward now, and it will only be a short time before the first excursion from Clarksville to Princeton will be run.

FAIRMEN'S STATE CONVENTION.

Reduced Rates of Fare on Railroads to Nashville.

The second annual convention of the State Farmers' Association will convene at the Capitol in Nashville on Wednesday, June 4, 1894.

The Louisville and Nashville and the Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis railroads will sell excursion tickets from all points on their lines to the State to persons attending the convention, at four cents per mile for the round trip to Nashville and return, good for going June 3d and 4th, and for returning until the 7th, inclusive.

As questions of very great importance to all farmers, and to the general agricultural interest of the State will be presented for the consideration and action of the convention, it is earnestly hoped that a large delegation will be present.

Every county in the State, who may be present, will be regarded as members of the convention and entitled to its privileges as such. Farmers of other States are also invited to attend and take part in discussions. All ladies are respectfully invited.

Newspapers friendly to the interest of farmers are requested to publish this notice, and accept the thanks of the Association for this and past favors.

Farmers remember that organization on your part and proper attention to the same, through otherwise, mean transition from the blight of ignorance and dependence to intelligence, prosperity and independence for yourselves and children. You may or may not heed these words, but they are true.
